

English Shetland Sheepdog Club Championship Show 9.6.24

DOGS BIS Ch. Edglonian Golden Graham. RBIS Ch. Rannerdale Queen of the Dark.

VD 1. Riding's Anchor Surprise Percy Polaris for Torinska. Blue merle of quality and type, balanced head, neat ears and enquiring outlook, well made throughout and moved accordingly, showed well, BV. 2. Greenwood's Omerid Gives Warm Hugs. Tri in lovely coat and condition, moved with style and worked well with handler, pushed hard for 1st place. 3. Carr's Lowick Black Angus.

MPD 1. Hardy's Sandwick Ace of Hearts. Eye catching black/white youngster of super shape and construction, quality head which was in balance, sweet expression which is not easy to achieve in this colour, good front and rear action, showed me all his charms and moved around the ring with style and purpose. 2. Rutterford's Myter Black Tarquin at Stormhead. Attractive tri of small type and was a pleasure to go over, balanced head, correct front and rear quarters, level top-line, steady mover. 3. Robinson's Alnmac We Will Rock You.

PD 1. Norris' Ferngrove Skywalker. Lovely s/w of quality and type so well put together, his dark expressive eyes and neat ears which he uses all the time showed off his virtues with panache as he covered the ground with ease. 2. Robinson's Alnmac We Will Rock You. Repeat. 3. Fenton's Shannmie's Dark Arches.

JD 1. Winfield's Oakcroft The Mandalorian. Very handsome boy showing a pleasing coat in good condition, quality head topped with well set ears which he uses continuously, dark expressive eyes, nicely rounded muzzle of good length, correctly built body which enabled him to cover the ring with stylish movement, showed off his virtues with aplomb. 2. Parker's Edglonian Prime Target with Tolarock. Another young man with promise, head handles well and he has good front and rear action which combined with his firm body allowed him to move as he should. 3. Foster-Cooper's Shelytysham Danseur TAF.

YD 1. Mitchell's Valdosta Gracelands JW. Handsome exhibit with lots to like about him, balanced quality head with super outlook, well constructed in super coat and condition, moves across the carpet like a veteran, one to watch. 2. Hodgson's Brown Sugar of Silverlight (imp PORT). This attractive young man was of good body and type, he just needed his coat to complete a very promising picture, I do wish him well for his future show career which I will follow with great interest. 3. Lavika He's Charm.

ND 1. Stock's Shelmist Summertime Blues. Very smart b/m presented in ample coat of pleasing colour, constructed nicely throughout, quality head and body, showed himself off proudly and he moved with style. 2. Rutterford's Myter Black Tarquine at Stormhead. Sound mover and smart show dog. 3. Ferngrove Skywalker.

TD 1. Myter Black Tarquin at Stormhead. 2. Shelytysham Dansher. 3. Johnson/Jacobs' Willowthorn Happy Gaze.

GD 1. Revill's Mosardi Don't Stop. Pleasing exhibit in lovely coat of nice colour, head is balanced and has expressive eyes and neat ears, attractive body shape carried on strong legs and neat feet, moved with style and purpose. 2. Linford's Hillhenry In Your Honour. Sparkling tri in super coat, firm body, quality head, nicely constructed throughout, showed himself to great effect, close up to one. 3. Burch's Bordamour All Fired Up.

PGD 1. Cheal's Carolelen Composer at Faemadra. Another handsome lad in full coat, good body and presented in sound condition, lovely head qualities and built to do a day's work, moved and showed all his charms. 2. Hard's Sandwick Masterclass. A lovely sound tri, beautifully put together, has a lovely length of tail, a lovely inquisitive character which I loved, I'm sure he will have better days. 3. Fillery-Hammond's Wavesongs Chasing Rainbows.

MLD 1. Mottram's Lundecoeks Hoopie Doo at Lockaren JW (imp SWE). A very good looking exhibit who showed his virtues with great pride and his movement was steady and true, super head and expression and in profile showed a wonderful shape, his strong well boned legs and feet carried him easily around the ring, close to the main dog winners. 2. Brady's Afterglow Sky Miles to Bordercot. Very attractive b/m who is quality throughout, his balanced head was a joy to handle, strong neck set into well laid shoulders, firm body carried on strong legs and feet, covered the ring with a graceful movement. 3. Lycett's Iliad Isle Delight.

LD 1. Forster-Parish's Lowick Blueberry. One I have admired from the ringside, presented in lovely blue coat and in complete harmony with his handler, stood proudly showing off his charms and flowing across with great aplomb, pleased to award him RDCC. 2. Lycett's Iliad Isle of Ewe. S/w, full of pleasing type and beautiful quality, sound construction throughout and did everything to please his handler, moved and presented himself to near perfection. 3. Barrowclough's Shadowess Lockdown Hero.

OD 1. Pearson's Ch. Edglonian Golden Graham. What can I say about this handsome Champion that has not been said many times before, he filled my eyes when I watched him enter the ring, he has wonderful head qualities, he is so well constructed, has a gorgeous coloured coat, the darkest eyes and neatest ears which he used continuously, moved with precision and purpose, could not deny him DCC, thanks for the privilege of judging him. 2. Goodwin's Highbrook Hobnob JW. Liked this lad a lot, he is nicely put together and moves well but I felt he was not really enjoying his day out, I know he will have better days. 3. Hull's Mohnesee's Dream Date of Lizmark JW.

SpOD Sable & White 1. Stafford's Ch. Rannerdale Showmaster JW. Very attractive young man who I have admired many times from the ringside, super head, well constructed body, super coat, well able to do a day's work, master showman. 2. Miles' Lundecock's Theodor (imp SWE). Handsome lad not quite in his best coat but deserved his placing, look forward to seeing him in full coat. 3. Bastiani/John's Auberswell Ghost Rider.

SpOD Tricolour 1. Thornley's Felthorn Cover Story. Shown in lovely gleaming coat in good condition, did all that was asked from him, moved with ease and style.

SpOD Blue Merle 1. Riding's Anchor Surprise Percy.

SpO Breeders D 1. Walker's Ch/Fr/Sui/Lux/Int Ch. Tooralie's Pie In The Sky. 2. Lavika Moonlight Storm JW. 3. Tyler's Oakcrofts Venturer.

Judge - Betty Peach
