

LEEDS CITY & DISTRICT CANINE ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW 28th JULY 2019

SHETLAND SHEEPDOGS

I thoroughly enjoyed judging this show, but felt sad to have missed seeing so many of the young males who were apparently unable to get into the show in time – no one told me there was a long tail back to get into the show. I judged sharply as I was worried we would get the heat, as the day before which was the hottest day of July. I was also thrilled to see my winners who did well in the groups.

MPD 2. 1. Atkin - Esstremere Tri To Dance Lovely Tri moved beautifully good head and ears well made baby showed well.

PD 2. 1. Stafford Rannerdale Showmaster What a super young man Clean head neat ears dark eye good shoulder white collar lovely balanced shape with good bone long tail moved very well . BP in breed and took Best Puppy in Pastoral Group.

JD 5. 1. Walker Tooralie's Ocho Rio JW Another who stood alone but again worthy of his 1st Shaded sable youngster nice head and ears super for size deep brisket good bone rich colour moved and showed very well.

PGD 8. 1. Isdale Viewdale Cuddly Duddly JW sable boy with WC super front a rear good head and eye neat ears moved and showed well. 2. Chatterley Silver Coin Was pleased to get a chance to go over this dog as his colour which is blue is not his fortune but was pleasantly surprised he is beautifully constructed liked his head and eye and he moved well. 3. Daniels and Taylor Pepperhill Cruise Control.

LD 10. 1. Bendelow Guxel Golden Ringer I've put difficult decision here but on reflection I did prefer this boy as he is all male lovely gold sable and white in good coat liked his head good eye and ears super shoulder and deep body and good bone nice bend of stifle long tail. 2 Goodwin Highbrook Hobnob love this little chap too, sweet expression good eye and neatest ears plain sable with nice shape who moved and showed well. 3.
