

SKC GENERAL CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW 16TH MAY 2025

First of all I would like to thank the Scottish Kennel Club for asking me to judge Shelties at their show and also the exhibitors for their lovely entry of quality exhibits and can confirm that I had some very difficult decisions to make.

PD 1 Jeavons Grandgeans Play the Game - Lovely s/w who is up to size for age, hope he does not grow on. Very nice head and expression, neat well placed and tipped ears, flat refined skull, well placed stop, dark oval eye which was obliquely set. Good fill of foreface with rounded muzzle and nice underjaw. Well arched neck and correct layback of shoulder and upper arm, good depth of chest and nice spring of rib. Level topline ice slope over loin leading to low set tail of correct length, well muscled thighs with straight low set hocks, neat well arched feet. Moved with reach and drive in profile and straight fore and aft. 2. Forbes Degallo the prodigy - Another quality s/w who is very similar in type to 1. Lovely head and expression, neat well placed ear set flat skull, good stop, obliquely set dark eyes, well filled foreface and good underjaw. Nice length of neck and good layback of shoulder with good upper arm. Needs to develop slightly in depth of chest, nice sprig of rib, level topline, with nice sweep over loin. Low set tail of correct length good hind angulation with well let down straight hocks, neat feet. Another who moved with reach and drive in profile but slightly untidy behind.

JD 1 Gartland Arcot Polished Black - nice Tri who had a lovely jet black coat, 3rd in previous class but pulled out all the stops in this class, nice head and expression, neat ears, flat skull, good stop, nice dark eye, nice rounded muzzle and good underjaw, slightly steep shoulder and short upper arm. Needs to develop slightly in chest but this should come with maturity. Level topline with sweep over loin, low set tail, and short straight hocks. Movement was balanced but lacked forward reach 2. Forbes Degallo The Name of The Game - Lovely s/w who has well placed neat ears, slightly deep in back skull which was slightly broad, well placed dark almond shaped eyes, good stop nice rounded muzzle and good underjaw. Good length of neck, nice shoulder angulation, needs to develop in chest but this should come with maturity. Level topline, low set tail of correct length. Movement was balanced in profile.

PGD 1 Parker Edglonian Prime Target with Tolarock - Very nice shaded sable who is maturing nicely and was on his best behaviour. Nice refined head, neat well tipped ears, flat skull, good stop, dark almond shaped eyes which were obliquely set, good fill of foreface and nice underjaw. Good length of neck leading to well laid back shoulder with good upper arm. Chest and spring of rib needs to develop slightly but this should come with maturity Level topline and nice sweep over loin, tailset ok, slightly higher than ideal but has nice length of tail reaching the hock, nice straight low hocks. Movement was balanced fore and aft with good reach and drive. 2. Stafford Rannerdale Mister Majic - Very nice s/w who unfortunately was very unsettled. Lovely make and shape and had good bone.
